Embracing 28 acres of beautiful, rolling countryside and bushland on the northern fringes of the Southern Highlands, this wonderfully secluded, rural sanctuary boasts a striking, unique and newly refreshed homestead built into the side of a hill. Nestled quietly at the end of a lane that meanders across the meadows, this custom-built, eco-friendly home is striking in both design and its robust, fire-resistant qualities. Commanding enviable views across hills and dales as far as the eye can see, this unique, must-see parcel of rural idyll promises an alluring, one-of-a-kind lifestyle of space, privacy, relaxation and comfort within a short drive of major towns and Sydney.

- Nestled in a clearing, the sturdy house is partially built, bunker-style, into the side of a slope, protected from the elements, warm in winter and cool in summer, with low energy costs
