A breathtaking, contemporary interpretation of a traditional Australian farmhouse will be unveiled in early 2023 as one of the most remarkable and striking homes ever to grace the Southern Highlands. Inspired by the mountain hut in the classic 1982 film, 'The Man from Snowy River' and named after the legendary stockman from Banjo Paterson's famous poem of the same name, Clancy of the Overflow will prove a captivating and distinguished interpretation of colonial aesthetic.

Curated by an all-star, all-local team of talented architects and designers and boasting a prized, dress circle address on the sunlit, gum-dotted, northern slopes of iconic Mt Gibraltar, Clancy overlooks the charming historic township of Mittagong, and will offer its maiden owners a stunning and unique fusion of colonial charm and indulgent, state-of-the-art luxury and sophistication.
